

An author reveals [some] secrets of good writing

Tuesday, April 8

9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Bethel Baptist Church

2212 Lance St. Rapid City

$2 per child per session - max of $20 per family

Miriam Jones Bradley (author of The Double Cousins Mysteries) invites your family to join her for a special day as she gives (some) tips to improve your writing skills.

Session 1: Exploring a Writer's Journey 9-9:45 a.m.

Learn about Plot, Setting, Revision, and Publishing while learning about the author's path to publication. (Appropriate for grades 1-5)

Session 2: More than Dry Bones: The Skeleton Shapes the Plot 10-10:45

This session uses the human skeleton to teach a simple, effective, and fun way to plot your plot! (Appropriate for grades 5-12)

**Please read or watch Charlotte's Web and watch the movie Up before attending.

Session 3: Use of Senses in Writing 11-12:15

This hands on session guides students through the process of using their senses to inspire writing topics and then gives them the opportunity to write. (Appropriate for grades 4-12)

***If your child fits best in one of the classes outside his stated grade, he may register for that class.

Mrs. Bradley's books will be available for purchase for the special price of $10 per book and the author will be signing books.
