

Miriam Jones Bradley

AIM HIGH
AFFIRM INSPIRE
MOTIVATE
Legacy Building

Miriam is gifted to Affirm, Inspire, and Motivate people of all ages to identify and pass on their legacies. She fulfills this mission through nursing, writing, and speaking.

Miriam has a heart for children of all ages and enjoys speaking to church groups about becoming all God wants them to be, and school groups about the writing process. She desires to help them learn to do new things, take initiative, and have adventures as they grow. Through her children's books, The Double Cousins Mysteries, Miriam uses traditional stories that are also exciting and captivating to illustrate the importance of family connections while establishing good Biblical and character truths.

Miriam is passionate about encouraging people to record and share their legacies and enjoys speaking to adults as well as children. Her book, All I Have Needed-A Legacy for Life is a collection of stories celebrating the legacy she received from the adults in her life.

She and her husband, Dr. Bruce Bradley, make their home in North Carolina.

What others are saying!

"As a Christian school teacher, I love being able to recommend books that are well written and have a solid salvation message. This is one of those unique books with an intriguing storyline and biblical foundation."

D. Clark, Christian Elementary School Teacher

"Thank you so very much for coming out to visit and talk to our third graders at Millbridge Elementary. They talked about you for days."

A. Weaver - Third Grade Teacher

"Mrs. Bradley is an effective communicator who takes delight in sharing her memories of grandparents, aunts, uncles, and other family with her audience. When she speaks to school age children she combines her experiences with solid techniques for writing that inspires and entertains one's audience."

Constance Cloud

"Miriam has a magnetic speaking dynamic that engages audiences of ALL ages."

Lisa Heidrich, RN, CCM,
CHP, author of Speaking Confidence.
